- Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.
- Consider also the fact that his son Jonathan is old enough to be a military leader.

Saul's Excuses

- Samuel hadn't come as expected.
- The people were deserting.
- The Philistines were gathering.
- Feeling that battle was imminent, he "forced" himself to ask for the Lord's blessing by making the offering himself.

- Saul has knowingly disobeyed.
- God has taken the kingdom from his family.
- He has chosen “a man after His own heart” (David) to become the next king.

The Israelites' Disadvantages

- Samuel had declared God's judgment on Saul & had left without making offerings & without giving him God's direction or blessing.
- So many had deserted that Saul had only 600 soldiers left.

The Israelites' Disadvantages

- The Philistines had a huge army & had sent out 3 raiding parties in 3 different directions.
- The Israelites lacked real swords or spears due to the Philistines' monopoly on metalworking.
- The Philistines were occupying a key pass at Michmash.
