New Testament Greek Words

- eros—sexual love
- philia (verb = phileo)—friendship love
- agape (verb = agapao)—a determined act of the will, a joyful resolve to put the welfare of others above our own—Rom 5:8
- storgos—family love or covenant love, where there's a bond; KJV calls it "natural affection."

Old Testament Hebrew Words

- ahab—to have affection for (love a person, a food, even God)
- chesed (hesed)—like storgos in the NT—lovingkindness, mercy, kindness, loyalty, favor, goodness, steadfast love, unending love, covenant or family love where there is a bond—This type of love is very important in Hosea (2:19; 4:1; 6:4, 6; 10:12; 12:6).

God's actions show His love.

- John 15:13—“Greater love has no one than this: that one lay down his life for his friends.”
- Rom. 5:8—“But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.”
- John 3:16—“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.”

Our obedience shows our love.

- John 14:15 “If you love Me, you will keep My commandments”—Jesus speaking!
- John 14:23 “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My Word.”

- James 4:4—“You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.”
- 1 John 2:15—“Do not love the world, nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.”

*“Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD is one! And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart
and with all your soul
and with all your might.”*
